Bulgarian Leader
and Friend Slain.

SOFIA (Bulgaria), December 12.— Boris Sarafoff, the most famous of all the leaders of the Bulgarian band in Macedonia, was shot dead at the threshold of his house to day by a Macedonian who at the same time shot and killed another revolutionary chief named Garvauff, while the latter was in the act of bidding Sarafoff farewell.

Boris Sarafoff was appointed commander of the Macedonian revolutionary forces that made so much trouble in the summer of 1903. His name was prominent in all the uprisings in Macedonia against the Turks, and he has been described as the most romantic figure in the Balkans. Sarafoff was popularly believed and stated to be the real instigator of the abduction of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, from the Vilayet of Saloniki in September, 1901, in order to procure through her ransom funds to enable the Macedonian revolutionary committee to organize the insurrection.

The revolutionary leader's hatred for Turks was acquired at an early age through seeing his father and grandfather tortured, dragged off in chains to a dungeon and then exiled for fifteen years. At the age of fourteen he attacked, single handed, the prison in which his father and grandfather were confined, but he was flogged for his pains. The boy swore to revenge himself on the "Turks" and studied to this end, becoming an officer in the Bulgarian army.

In 1895 Sarafoff organized a band to raid Turkish territory and since then has headed no less than 380 daring raids. Once he captured the Turkish town of Melnik with forty men, putting the garrison to flight.

Sarafoff was familiar with hundreds of miles of tracks through forest and over the mountains of Turkey.
His aim was the organization of a vast rebellion, with the object of seizing Constantinople and overthrowing Turkish rule. The Turkish government set a price of $20,000 on his head. He was about thirty-seven years old.

Sarafoff was the organizer of the Macedonian committee. His prominence in Macedonian agitations and his dictatorial methods made him many enemies among his own followers.

The murderer is believed to be a man named Panitza, a nephew of the notorious Major Panitza who was executed in 1890 for conspiring to assassinate Prince Ferdinand and cabinet members.

The crime is attributed to dissensions arising from differences regarding the disposal of money subscribed to the Macedonian cause. The police are searching for Panitza.
